

Only the best materials with the latest technology

Polyfilm is the successfully well know Polyfoam in calibers 1/32", 1/25", 1/16", 3/32", 1/8" and 1/4" it is laminated wiht a high density film and it offers the market the posibility to print over the lamination any text or image.

Polyfilm raises from the market needs of presonalize its products, it means that besides protecting could be printed or personalized with any message torch the market segment they are focuss at, with such as companies logos, names, advertisement, instructions or any other information that might be important for the final user.

It's is quite use by the automotive industry as diferent parts packaging, the industry of laminated flooring uses it as underlayment for carpet and laminated materials at their instalation, the electronics industry uses it at bags to protect and advertise their products.

Polyfilm is produced at diferent sizes that can perfect fit in the related market at its best.

The printing would be made continously at the lenght of the roll and it cost will shows a very afordable cost-benefit relationship by advertisement and it's up on the number of inks that will be used.

For more information and pricing you may get in contact with your comertial executive or customers services.

